Plenary Session: Sociology as a Discipline in Chinese Societies in the Era of Globalization

Organizer and Moderator: Xiaoling Shu, UC Davis

Leading sociologists who have played leadership roles in academia in both Chinese societies (mainland, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore) and North America share insights on research (focus, topics, methods, etc), publication (journals and books), grantsmaking, personnel (hiring, merit and promotion) system, and teaching (undergraduate and graduate). A short discussion and Q&A section will follow to allow both the panelists and the audience an opportunity to reflect, share, and discuss interesting observations and insights.
